Belgrade, 20. March-2014

With this letter I would like to express my intention to be part of Marsa Makris' feature project Sacrilege.

I had the pleasure to read the script written by Marsa with the collaboration of Vangelis Chatziyannidis and I have to admit that I really appreciated the mesmerizing narrative.

Her proposal that I play the part of the "bed-ridden man", an intriguing portrayal of a complex character, a non-speaking role that forms the center of the narrative, is truly a creative challenge.

So as mentioned, I happily present you through this document, my wish to collaborate with Marsa Makris co-writer & director of Sacrilege, to be produced by Panos Bisdas & Authorwave.

Sincerely,
